SATISH BANSAL

Front End Web-Developer

PROFILE

I'm Satish Bansal. I'm currently in my final year of Bachelor's in commerce, and I'm really enjoying the program. Outside of academics, I'm a very huge cricket fan, and I love to play and watch the game. Recently, I've also been exploring my interest in web development and have been learning HTML, CSS, JavaScript, Jquery and Bootstrap framework. I'm excited about the potential for this skillset to open up new opportunities for me in the future.
